President: Mateo Van Thienen

Active Members: 65

Purpose: Students for New Urbanism is established for the purpose of educating UF students on the ideas of New Urbanism, advocating for New Urbanism principles in Gainesville, and raising awareness about New Urbanism through projects and engagement in the community.

Activities: To accomplish these goals, Students for New Urbanism holds biweekly general body meetings addressing different New Urbanism topics, discussing them with invited faculty and doing hands-on activities with maps, images and models. Also, members attend City of Gainesville public meetings to advocate for New Urbanism in the community. SNU members also go on field trips to witness New Urbanism communities in Florida.
